

CALL for PAPERS

12th World Rabbit Congress

30th June to 3rd July 2020 in Nantes, France

The 12th World Rabbit Congress will be held from 30th June to 3rd July 2020 in Nantes, France. We look forward to an exciting meeting with the broad topics out of rabbit science: Feeding and nutrition, Ethology and Welfare, Hygiene and Pathology, Breeding and Genetic, Farming systems and economy, Biology and Physiology, Reproduction, Production systems for sustainable rabbit production, Pet rabbit, Free communications.

Deadline for submitting a paper: 31th December 2019

Submit your paper online :

<https://colloque.inra.fr/wrc2020/Submission>

First step : create your personal submission account in the website

Second step : submit your full short paper (4 pages in English) online. After filling several compulsory fields (*), your abstract will be saved to your author (personal) space, accessible again when logged in on the website. You can finish the edition of your abstract later.

When finished, you can submit to the scientific committee by clicking on the "OK" button. Then, exchanges with the referee will give you the opportunity to improve your paper (final revised paper must be submitted by 15th march). Referee will send you a notification, as soon as your paper is accepted (or not) and you will be noticed to prepare either an oral presentation or a poster.

To prepare your paper, please follow strictly the author guidelines (Guidelines to download) and the template (Template to download).

All submitted papers will be evaluated by a refereeing committee (<https://colloque.inra.fr/wrc2020/Organizers/Scientific-Referees>).

Once your communication has been accepted, you MUST register for the conference. Please note that a maximum of 3 papers submitted for one author speaker registered at the conference.